

Formative Assessment Choice Board

Draw a picture to provide a different ending to the story.

Record yourself retelling the story using pictures or a graphic organizer.

Place pictures of the story in order and write captions for each picture. Use your story glossary.

Write a poem that describes the setting of the story. Use your story glossary.

Create a comic strip to illustrate the conclusion of a story.

Write a paragraph describing the main character of the story. Use your story glossary.

Use a Venn diagram to compare and contrast two characters in the story.

Analyze five illustrations of the story and decide which best represents the climax. Explain why you chose that picture to a classmate.

Answer questions about the story on the computer. Use your graphic organizer.

